THOMAS J. FISHER & CO., INC., REAL ESTATE, LOANS, AND INSUR-ANCE, 1414 F ST. N. W. TELEPHONES M. 348 AND M. 3398.

RICHMOND. Va., Nov. II.—While hunting on his game preserves near High Point, N. C., George J. Gould accidentally shot Edward Burns, of High Point, one of his attendants. The shot from Mr. Gould's gun scattered, wounding Burns in several places. The most scrious injury, however, was caused by several shot entering his eye.

Mr. Gould had an engine attached to his private car and the wounded man was taken at high speed to Greensboro. Mrs. Gould accompanied him and administered to him on the way.

At Greensboro a specialist examined him and said that all his wounds were superficial except that in his eye, and that there was small chance of saving it.

Mr. Gould showed great concern at this report and at once arranged for Burns to be taken to New York. Heleft for that place last night, and Mr. Gould says that no expense will be spared to save his sight.
